

ARAVIS MASSIF - LAND OF PASTURES self-guided

Bearded vultures and culinary specialities

That landscape shaped by man and nature is the perfect place for a getaway in the middle of mountain pastures. Mankind is at the origin of traditional villages covered with "tavaillon", but also of farmland locally known for the cheese reblochon. Local nature is verdurous thanks to wetlands, the visible work of glaciers and animal species still present in this massif: chamois, ibex, marmots, golden eagles and rare bearded vultures. From the most emblematic sites (Aravis pass and Colombiere pass, Beauregard plateau, Lake Confins and Lake Lessy) to others that are more secret, this route also runs between the sporty village of La Clusaz and the authentic Grand-Bornand. All in a "cosy" version every night!
